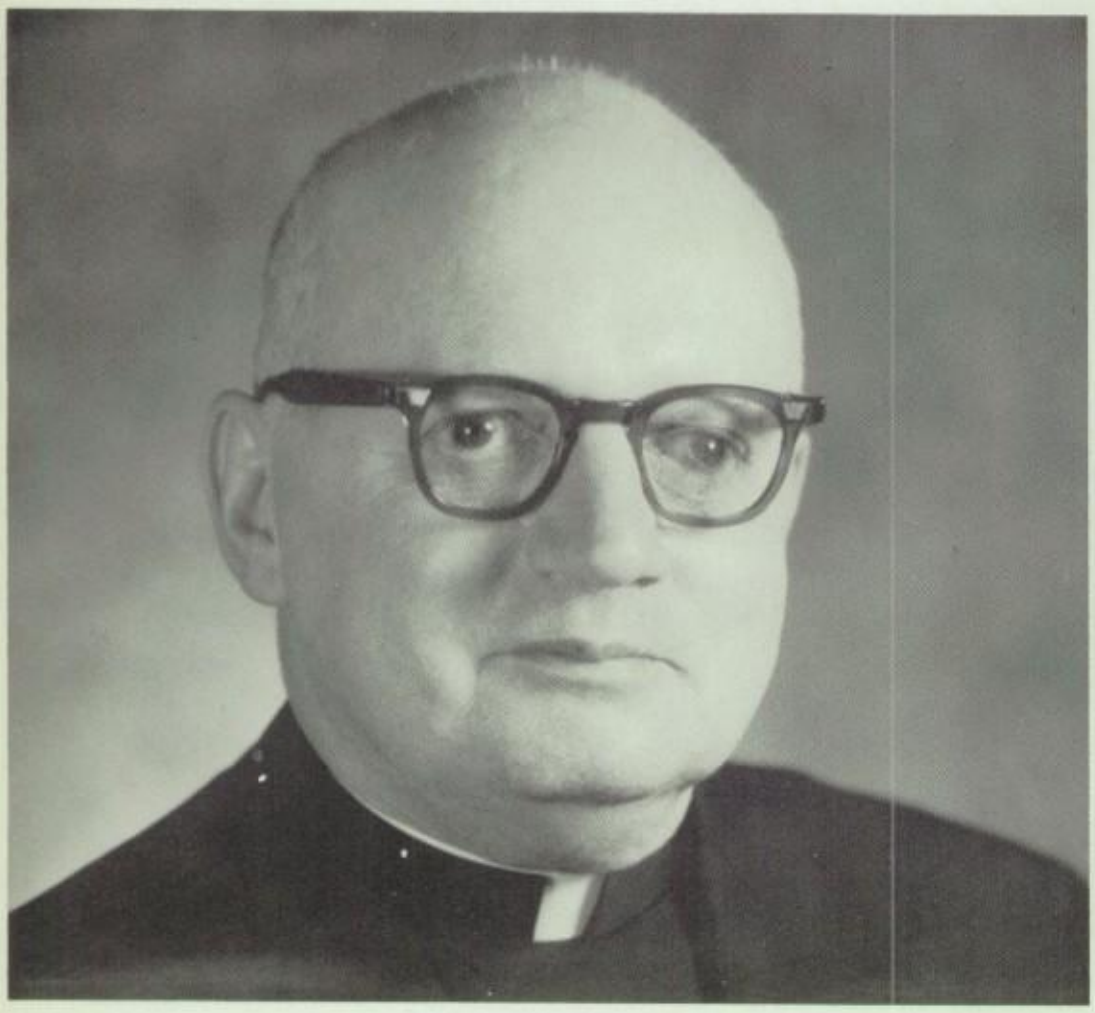
BELOW: The Reverend Msgr. Leichner, Director of Central Catholic High School.



As principal, Mr. James Hodrick set high standards for the CCHS community. Through the determination of Mr. Hodrick and Vice-Principal Rev. Joseph Whalen, we were able to meet these standards with confidence and pride.

Changes this year in the disciplinary system improved school relations and fostered positive attitudes among students, faculty, and administration. Primarily responsible for incorporating these changes was new Administrative Assistant Mr. Robert Fulton. Mr. William Tielman and Sr. Mary Ellen Ford assisted Mr. Fulton in his duties as school disciplinarian and contributed greatly to the success of the school year.

Masson Stage Comes Alive With the "Sound of Music"

The Neuremberg Abbey set the stage for the musical production of the "Sound of Music." The cast spent many hours perfecting their singing, acting, and dancing. Under the direction of Sister Saint Elizabeth, IHM, the cast stunned their audiences with five successful performances. The dance steps were choreographed by Mrs. Janice Piotrowski. The pit orchestra was directed by Mr. John Bookholt, and Mr. Ralph Brodt.

Students Donate Services to Community

The 1977-1978 Student Council members strove to attain the goals set by President Bill Colby, Vice-President Lisa Kasprenski, Secretary Ann Klucharich and Treasurer Vicky Lysek. Assuming the role of advisor to Student Council was Mr. Robert Fulton, who guided council members in their endeavors throughout the year.

The efforts of this year's Key Club served to aid the community throughout the year. Under the guidance of Mr. Robert Fulton, President Jeff Green, Vice-President Dave Konapelsky, Treasurer Frank Kuzmin, and Public Relations Officer Todd Alexander, the club spent many dedicated hours providing for a better C.C.H.S. environment.

Effort, Perseverance Characterize Club Members

Under the guidance of Sr. Florian, RSM, TCA contributed many services to the community. Some of these included selling Viking magnets to raise money for the elderly and collecting food for the poor at Thanksgiving.

The Spanish and German Clubs, with Moderators Mrs. Louise Blazusiak and Rev. Francis Revak, Sister Wilburga, OSF, sponsored the "Christkindlesmarkt" with baked goods from foreign countries.

Pep Club members devoted their time and efforts to promoting school spirit and inspiring Central athletes to impressive victories throughout the year.

School Newspaper Keeps Students Informed on "What's Happening"

With the guidance of Sr. John Eleanor, IHM, the 1977-78 Seneschal reported on various activities during the year. Directed by co-editors Colleen Cannon and Patti Sellers, the staff actively relayed news events for the benefit of the entire CCHS student body.

Dedicated Representatives Motivate Student Body

The student council of 1978, under the supervision of Mr. Fulton, led the student body to a very successful year. Among other endeavors, the council sponsored a trip to Washington, D.C. for a march against abortion, went Christmas caroling and sponsored a dance for the student body in January.

The Council of Youth represented the school in the city schools' council. They sponsored many concerts and workshops for the enjoyment and enrichment of Allentown students.

The National Honor Society, led by Sr. Mary Ellen Ford, SSJ, represented the outstanding students of the 1978 senior class. These students were outstanding not only for their academic virtues, but also for their versatility, leadership, and active involvement.

Diversified Groups Provide CCHS With Varied Services

The 1978 Interact Club provided L.A.R.C. with parties for the children and on various occasions represented Central in community projects.

German Club, under the guidance of Sr. Wilburga, OSF, displayed many German customs and baked at Christmas during their Kristkindelmart.

The talents of the members of the Art Club were displayed at various times throughout the year. The artists were greatly inspired by their moderator Mr. Eggleston.

Band Front Steps to the Tunes of the Viking Marching Band

Performing at football game half-times, various parades, and band festivals, the Central Catholic Marching Band and Band Front displayed an array of musical talents. Some of the musical selections included "MacArthur Park," the lively "Bionic Band," "Carioca" and "Virgin de la Macarena" from Spain. Under the direction of Mr. John Bookholt, the band was chosen as the Honor Band to lead the 1978 Gimbel's Thanksgiving Day Parade. The Flag Drill Team, under the direction of Mr. Tony Knerr, the Rifle Drill and Majorettes directed by Mrs. Linda Krassley and the State Flag and Color Guard Teams directed by Miss Judy Halleman, were greatly appreciated for their impressive performances.

Vikettes Capture PIAA State Crown

The Girls' Basketball team, under the guidance of Coach James Trumbo, out-scored a strong Mount Lebanon team in the last round of PIAA Play-offs and captured the PIAA State Title for the second time in six years. For the sell-out crowd at Hershey Park Arena, the victory was well-anticipated, and, at long last, reality.

The team began the season with notable victories over Freedom, Dieruff, Allen and Emmaus, which established their goal for the first-half championship. Other highlights of the season included the appointment of Seniors Cheryl Buchman and Ellen Malone to the EPL All-Star Team, and the 1,000 point scoring record broken by Ellen Malone.

Tennis Teams Excel in EPL

The girls' tennis team, under the guidance and leadership of Mrs. Deborah Ellsworth, achieved an impressive record with decisive victories over Dieruff, Whitehall, and Becahi. The squad put forth their best efforts with captain Lisa Lonergan building team spirit and unity. The doubles team of Leslie Burke and Nancy Repetz were especially outstanding placing 4th in District Competition, as was Maureen Waterbury winning 6 of her 11 matches.

Under the direction of Mr. William Tielman, the boys' tennis team compiled for the third consecutive year a commendable season with a final record of 8-3. Their efforts gained them a third place standing in the East Penn League after beating such rivals as Dieruff, Whitehall and Liberty.

Both tennis teams upheld the winning tradition of C.C.H.S. and looked ahead to winning seasons in the future.

We, the 1978 GLEN ECHOES staff members have come to appreciate dedication, cooperation, and diligence through our yearlong efforts. We would like to thank the following for their help in accomplishing our goals . . .

— Mr. James Hodrick and Rev. Joseph Whalen for their continuing interest and support.
— The entire faculty for their patience and toleration.
— Sr. Ida Marie for her unending spirit and help throughout our annual patron drive.
— Carl Wolf Studios, Mr. John Stevens, and Ms. Louise Crisci for their skill concerning photography.
— Taylor Publishing Company and Mr. Edward Patrick for their advice in the organization of our book.
— Sr. Christopher, Mrs. Katherine Miller, Mrs. Mary Miller, and Miss Margaret Hellman for their willingness to lend their services.
— Businessmen, parents, and friends for their generous patronage.
— Miss Ellen Stefanou, for her selflessness and guidance in leading the staff to a rewarding year.
